Weight: 235 lbs.

Cincinnati, OH

Move Descriptions:

MIDAS TOUCH = a big boot

Goldilocks = a sharpshooter

Golden Sleep = a GTS

Golden Gallop = an arrogant strut

Hailing from Cincinnati where he was trained by "Machine Gun" Karl Anderson, "Golden Boy" Jordan Clearwater has an entitled nature and often a title around his waist. Before his matches, Clearwater frequently demands silence from the crowd so he can take off his robe and show them what "pure gold" looks like. In Championship Wrestling, Jordan Clearwater's accolades include winning the UWN Heritage Championship from Ray Rosas, winning the 2021 Red Carpet Rumble, and winning the UWN World Championship. Clearwater held the UWN Championship for 7 months before losing it to current champion Danny Limelight in a match broadcast on Christmas Day. To earn that title shot against Clearwater, Limelight had to win the Golden Opportunity tournament which, named after Clearwater, has become an annual event in Championship Wrestling. Outside of Championship Wrestling, Clearwater competes in the NWA where he recently held the NWA World Television Championship. While in the NWA, Clearwater was in a stable managed by Austin Idol whose members included BLK Jeez and Marshe Rockett and Clearwater and Rockett formed a tag team called Gold Rushhh. Clearwater had a falling out with Idol at the Crockett Cup and has become the protégé for NWA World Heavyweight Champion EC3. Whether inside or outside of Championship Wrestling, Clearwater is currently looking to add some more championships to his resume and make a return to Golden Standard Time.
